Register of names

Below we list the characters who really existed and the book numbers in which they appear (S followed by number 01 to 13). We found information about all these characters in the Central Library of any of the Three Places, the Moon Bases, Arqueopolis or any of the other Convivialis Civitates we are in contact with. The conversations between the family members and the historical figures about whom we found information are generally romanticised and may be fictitious.

It is not always possible for us to verify to what extent certain conversations really took place, despite the many notes left by Alberto Auctor's ancestors.

Consulted sources

All the books and texts below have been consulted by the group of writers from the moment we found the Paulo Demeester Library (121.90) until the first draft (122.08) of the saga for one or more volumes. We asked everyone to keep this information up to date, although we are aware that certain some works were perhaps not included or forgotten. As for the other parts, Marie Liber is in charge of any update. Without being too rigorous, we have used as much as possiblethe standard that we are used to in the Central Library of Bibliopolis.

The list only contains the title of the work in the language in which it was read.
